

SCOUT WEEK IS SUCCESS IN CITY

"Reverence Day" to Be Observed Today and Will Close Week's Activities

Boy Scout week has been generally observed in this city during the past week with gratifying results according to reports from the scout executive, George A. Goates.

Commencing the week last Sunday with the various scout activities programs demonstrating scout work at the various churches in this city, the activities continued with varied programs for each day of the week.

"Home Day," camp meetings and hikes with fathers and scouts have been thoroughly enjoyed, not only by the scouts, but also the fathers who have accompanied the boys.

The program concludes today which is known as "Reverence Day." It is expected that all Boy Scouts in this city will attend church services accompanied by their fathers.

Members of the Ogden Rotary club have also been active in the scout program and have taken upon themselves the work of collecting $9000 for the scouts.

Part of this money will be used in establishing a permanent summer camp for the scouts in South Fork canyon.

SPOUSE BROKE HER NOSE, WOMAN SAYS; ASKS FOR DIVORCE

Alleging that her husband broke her nose once and threatened to do it again if she did not leave his house, Mrs. Van Kamen of Ogden filed suit for divorce yesterday morning in the district court against William Van Kamen.

Mrs. Van Kamen charges in her complaint that on June 14, 1916, her husband beat her, bruised her and hit her on the nose, breaking that member, and offering to do it again if she did not leave at once. She alleges that her husband has an uncontrollable temper and exhibits a cross and nagging disposition.

Mrs. Kamen asks dissolution of the matrimonial bonds, temporary alimony and court costs. The couple were married in Farmington, July 31, 1915.

Plummer Is Pleased With Scout Work Here

Appreciation of the publicity given the Boy Scout conference recently held in this city and the general activities of the scout work, is expressed by Camp Commissioner Chas. G. Plummer in a letter received by Scout Executive George A. Goates. Commissioner Plummer also stated that he is pleased with the scout work in this city.

A suggestion has been made that a motion picture of the Ogden Boy Scouts trip through Yellowstone park be taken. The trip is said to be of national importance and that a film should be made. This suggestion comes from M. Alright, superintendent of the department of the interior of the National Parks service at Yellowstone.

Dr. Palmer Ends Series of Salt Lake Meetings

Dr. Ray Palmer has just closed a two weeks' meeting at the Bethel Baptist church, Salt Lake, at which Rev. H. Lyon Eyring, a pastor.

The meetings were very successful. Splendid congregations all the time, and great interest manifested. Dr. Palmer said Mrs. Eyring, an evangelist from Kansas City, Mo., led the song service.

Quite a number of people publicly confessed Jesus Christ, and several united with the Baptist church. Dr. Palmer will preach at First Baptist church, Ogden, on "Does Baptism Save?"

Bright Prospects for People's Sugar Co.

George E. Browning of the Peoples Sugar company has received a report from G. S. Stringham, secretary of the company regarding his trip of inspection to the beet fields in Sanpete county. The report is to the effect that there are prospects of a very heavy crop this year and that the tonnage will be double that of last year.

School Office Staff Likes New Quarters

Superintendent Karl Hopkins, the clerks and members of the board of education are expected to increase their efficiency as the result of taking over the Wm. Douglas residence near the Central junior high school as an office building. The new offices has a very cozy homelike appearance and members of the staff are thoroughly enjoying their new quarters. Instead of looking over their brick and stone as was the case from the office in the Col. Hudson building, the staff will now have a view of lawn, flower beds and trees that will prove to be inspiring, Superintendent Hopkins thinks.

Democratic County Primaries June 8

War Department Seeks Bids on Construction

Merchants and construction companies are advised to submit bids to the war department for supplies and every class of construction work, according to a letter received by the Ogden Chamber of Commerce from William E. McKell, manager of the American Surety company of New York.

Attention is called to the army appropriation bill which carries a total of $418,000,000.00, a large portion of which will be spent for supplies and construction work. It is also stated that the government is a general buyer and always expects the manufacturer to make a fair profit. Its bills are paid promptly and the best advertisement a manufacturer can have is that he is a government contractor.
